CONSOLIDATED CARPET PARTICIPATES IN 2010 DISNEY EARTH DAY FAIR

NEW YORK—March 18, 2010 – Consolidated Carpet (Consolidated) is pleased to announce that they will participate in Disney's Annual Earth Day exhibition fair on Thursday, April 22, 2010. This fair is located at the Walt Disney Company's New York headquarters at 47 West 66th Street. This year, the full day event will focus on water quality and safety, engaging employees and partners in a range of topics that deal with protecting and conserving resources.

Consolidated Carpet is committed to helping organizations achieve their green building goals as they relate to flooring and carpet installation. They are actively involved with various green projects, including a number of LEED accredited jobs. Additionally, Consolidated supports companies with reclamation programs through their ConServe Reclamation initiative, so that flooring materials can be recycled instead of going into landfills. Consolidated Carpet will showcase the latest environmental technologies and green techniques that are used by the flooring industry at the event.
