Consolidated Carpet Wins StarNet Grand Prize

StarNet, a cooperative of the nation's leading commercial floorcovering contracts, announced and celebrated the winners of its annual StarNet Commercial Flooring Cooperative Design Awards during its annual meeting. The award recognized StarNet members who are setting new standards of creativity in commercial interior design through the innovative use of flooring. This year's jury included Maurie Welsh O'Neill, associate publisher and art director of Floor Focus, Michelle Olmstead, senior associate at DES Architects + Engineers in Redwood City, Calif., and two Contract editors, editor in chief Jennifer Busch and managing editor Katie Weeks. Honors were awarded in seven categories, with the grand prize being awarded to Consolidated Carpet for City Hall Academy at The Tweed Courthouse in New York City. The project, which was designed by Lofreddo Brooks Architects and featured flooring products from Econights, also won the award in the education category.

Other category winners and honorable mentions included:

Large Corporate: RWA Flooring for Carlson Restaurants Worldwide in Carrollton, Texas, working with PageSoutherlandPage and flooring products from Milliken, Roppe and Armstrong. An honorable mention was awarded to Intertech Flooring for One Stop Center in San Antonio, Texas, working with RVK Architects and using flooring products from Mannington and Johnsonite.
